POELLATH advises DPE Deutsche Private Equity and its portfolio company B plus L on the acquisition of DBV Baumaschinen- & Baugerätevertriebs GmbH

Through its portfolio company B plus L Infra Log GmbH (“B plus L”), DPE Deutsche Private Equity (“DPE”) has acquired DBV Baumaschinen- & Baugerätevertriebs GmbH (“DBV”), a leading rental company for temporary container systems in southern Germany. By merging with DBV, B plus L expands its services and geographic presence in the rental of temporary container systems and construction site infrastructure. The parties have agreed not to disclose details of the transaction. POELLATH provided tax advice to DPE and its portfolio company B plus L in connection with the transaction.

DBV, founded in 1985 and based in Deggendorf, is one of the market leaders in the rental and sale of mobile container systems and sanitary facilities in southern Germany. The company employs around 90 people and operates one of the largest container parks in the southern German market with more than 8,000 units.

DPE Deutsche Private Equity was founded in 2007 and is an independent German investment company that invests in medium-sized companies in Germany, Austria and Switzerland.

The B plus L Group is a partner for construction site infrastructure and the rental and sale of fully equipped container solutions. Customers receive comprehensive service in setting up construction sites, as well as erecting temporary mobile container facilities for schools, offices, events, trade fairs and functions.

POELLATH advised DPE and its portfolio company B plus L on all tax aspects within the context of the acquisition with the following Munich team:

- Dr. Michael Best (partner, lead, tax)
- Tobias Deschenhalm (senior associate, tax)
- Cornelius Roth (associate, tax)
