POELLATH advises Maxburg on acquisition of AAC Praxisberatung AG

Maxburg Beteiligungen IV GmbH & Co. KG ("Maxburg"), an investment firm advised by Maxburg Capital Management GmbH, has entered into a partnership with AAC Praxisberatung AG ("AAC"), the leading software-based service provider for managing and auditing doctors' billing in the German statutory health insurance system. POELLATH advised Maxburg on tax law matters in connection with the transaction.

Berlin-based AAC has supporting registered doctors in running their practices in an economically secure and transparent manner for over 20 years. The company specializes in billing control, as well as plausibility and profitability analyses for doctors in private practice in almost all specialties and healthcare centers (HCC). With the AAC-Praxisnavigator®, AAC also offers a digital management tool that helps practices increase fees and minimize risks. The company has many years of expertise: it has advised over 13,000 practices and numerous HCCs since its foundation.

Maxburg is an investment management firm focused on German-speaking countries that primarily supports companies in partnership to drive sustainable growth. Maxburg's investment firms currently have total capital commitments of over EUR 1 billion at their disposal.

POELLATH advised Maxburg on all tax law matters relating to the acquisition with the following Munich team:

- Gerald Herrmann (associate partner, tax)
- Jannis Lühns (senior associate, tax)
