POELLATH advises Maxburg on acquisition of Scora Liquidity Group

Maxburg Beteiligungen IV GmbH & Co. KG (“Maxburg”), an investment company advised by Maxburg Capital Management GmbH, has acquired the Scora Liquidity Group, a leading provider of B2B receivables management in Germany. POELLATH provided tax advice to Maxburg in connection with the transaction.

The Scora Liquidity Group offers mid-sized companies sustainable solutions in the field of full-service receivables management as well as credit information services. Operating under established brands such as Germania, Eurania and Active Debt Collection, the group has been active in the market for many years. Through its specialised units, the group covers all key steps along the receivables cycle – from risk assessment to the enforcement of outstanding claims – thereby positioning itself as an integrated platform in the German debt collection market.

Maxburg is an investment management firm focused on German-speaking countries that primarily supports companies in partnership to drive sustainable growth. Maxburg’s investment firms currently have total capital commitments of over EUR 1 billion at their disposal.

POELLATH advised Maxburg on all tax law matters relating to the acquisition with the following Munich team:

- Gerald Herrmann (associated partner, lead, tax)
- Jannis Lührs (senior associate, tax)
