POELLATH further expands its private clients practice with experienced addition from Hengeler Mueller

Berlin/Frankfurt/Munich – POELLATH is strengthening its private clients practice with the addition of Dr. Wenzel Saha Kiehne, further expanding its services for entrepreneurial families, family offices and high-net-worth individuals, particularly in corporate, succession and civil law matters as well as contentious situations. Dr. Saha Kiehne joins the firm as a senior associate in Berlin and will work as part of the cross-office team led by Dr. Andreas Richter and Dr. Marcus Niermann in Berlin and Dr. Katharina Hemmen in Frankfurt.

POELLATH's private clients practice is among the leading advisory teams for entrepreneurial families, family offices and high-net-worth individuals in Germany. With around 30 professionals, the team advises clients on all aspects of wealth and business succession, family office structuring, foundations and trusts, as well as domestic and international tax, corporate and succession law matters. A particular focus lies on providing integrated advice to entrepreneurial families and their investment structures.

With Dr. Wenzel Saha Kiehne, POELLATH gains an experienced adviser in this field. After working for a lawyer admitted to practice before the German Federal Court of Justice with a focus on corporate and capital markets law, he most recently practised at Hengeler Mueller. There, he advised entrepreneurial families and family offices in particular on complex estate administrations, corporate law and private international law matters, as well as contentious disputes.

“We are delighted to welcome Dr. Saha Kiehne to our private clients practice,” says Dr. Andreas Richter. “He combines extensive experience advising entrepreneurial families and family offices with particular expertise at the intersection of corporate, succession and civil law.”

Dr. Marcus Niermann adds: “With Dr. Saha Kiehne, we are specifically strengthening our capabilities in contentious and conflict-related matters – an area in which our clients increasingly seek specialised advice at the intersection of corporate and succession law. His arrival is a valuable addition to our team.”

Dr. Wenzel Saha Kiehne is looking forward to the move: “At Hengeler Mueller, I had the opportunity to gain extensive experience advising entrepreneurial families and family offices in an outstanding environment, particularly on complex corporate, succession and contentious matters. I am now excited to take the next step and contribute to, and further develop my experience within, POELLATH’s market-leading private clients practice. I very much look forward to this new challenge.”
